Ten-Year Plan to End Homelessness Celebrates Third Anniversary

(EVANSVILLE, IN)- Community advocates for the homeless will join Mayor Jonathan Weinzapfel, County Commissioner Troy Tornatta, and other community leaders at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 13th, in the Browning Room at the Central Library, 200 SE Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd., to celebrate the third anniversary of the implementation of Destination: Home—A Ten-Year Journey to End Homelessness in Evansville and Vanderburgh County. The event is open to the public.

This ambitious ten-year plan to end homelessness as we've known it, instead of merely "managing" the problem, continues to move forward. Those who attend the anniversary celebration will receive updates on projects related to the strategies of Destination: Home. There will also be announcements about upcoming projects and efforts.

Area businesses and organizations will present signed Organizational Endorsements of support for the spirit and purpose of the plan. These new endorsements will join the 69 other organizations, 39 individuals, and 7 elected officials who have already signified their support.

The event will include other activities which celebrate our achievements as a community toward ending and preventing homelessness in our City and County.

To RSVP, or for more information, call (812) 428-4975 (ext. 28) or email info@destination-home.info

Copies of Destination: Home are available at all local libraries and online at www.destination-home.info
